Applicant's election without traverse of the species 1 (Fig. 2 embodiment) in the 12/22/04 paper was acknowledged. Claims 1 and 3-7 have been amended such that they all are directed at the Fig. 4 embodiment which was non-elected without traverse.

Therefore, claims 1 and 3-7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the 12/22/04 paper.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 27-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vaccaro, Jr. (Vaccaro) in view of O'Herron and Carter.

Vaccaro discloses the claimed set with the exception of the helical loop and curve to bank a ball. However, such obstacles are also known in the art as typified by Carter and O'Herron respectively. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have included such on Vaccaro's ramps along with the included tunnel 21, to add further interest to the game. What the game was actually used for (croquet or golf) is not at issue in the instant article claims.

Regarding claims 28 and 29, Vaccaro does not disclose the securing devices. However, such are known in the art as disclosed by O'Herron. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have used such with Vaccaro's device as well to anchor it to the ground.

Art Unit: 3711

In response to applicant's arguments the claims do not require a banked structure. They only require that the structure be capable of banking a ball around a curve. The term "bank", so used, is broad enough to encompass a structure that will allow a ball to ride up its surface as it rounds a curve which O'Herron's structure will permit depending on the speed of the ball.

Moreover, even Carter's device banks the ball around a curve.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Mark S. Graham at telephone number 571-272-4410.
